CSLF Announces Recipients of 2007 Scholarship

Rocky Hill, CT – March 12, 2007 - The Connecticut Student Loan Foundation (CSLF®) is pleased to announce the recipients of the 2007 CSLF/The First Tee of Connecticut Scholarship. Two deserving Connecticut students, Louise Lisboa of Stratford, CT and Robert Inahuazo of New Haven, CT, will each receive a $2,500 scholarship to be used toward their college tuition.

The CSLF/The First Tee of Connecticut Scholarship was created to support students involved in the Connecticut First Tee golf program, whose mission is to impact the lives of young people throughout Connecticut by providing programs that promote character development and life-enhancing values through the game of golf. Scholarships are awarded to students who participate in The First Tee of Connecticut program, demonstrate academic excellence, are actively involved in their communities, and plan to continue their education at the college/university level.

Louise Lisboa, a resident of Stratford, CT and student at Capital Community College (Hartford, CT), is a member of the National Dean's List and graduated from Warren Harding High School (Bridgeport, CT) one year early. Louise has many volunteer experiences including working with the Youth Leadership of Greater Bridgeport and the Children's Leadership Training Institute also in Bridgeport. Louise also plays First Violin in the Greater Bridgeport Youth Orchestra.

Robert Inahuazo, a New Haven resident and student at Wilbur Cross High School (New Haven, CT), is the Senior Editor of the school newspaper and Captain of the golf team. Robert has received many awards including The Gatorade High School Athlete Award and the National Scholar Athlete Award.

CSLF is pleased to recognize these outstanding students for their achievements. The scholarships are scheduled to be awarded to Ms. Lisboa and Mr. Inahuazo at the Travelers Championship PGA Tour event in June. For additional information, please contact Laura Valenti, Manager, Scholarships and Special Programs at 1(800) 237-9721, extension 446.
